AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend House Bill No. 1499 by deleting Sections 1 and 2 in their entirety and by substituting instead the following:

Section 1. It is the intention of the General Assembly by the provisions of this act to comply with the decision of the Supreme Court of Tennessee in the case of Lockert v. Crowell, 656 S.W.2d 836 (1983). In accordance with such decision, the General Assembly finds and declares that the apportionment of representative districts as provided in Section 2 of this act does not exceed fourteen percent (14%) total deviation, does not split more than thirty (30) counties, does not split any county in the "multi-county category" more than once, does not dilute minority voting strength, and that all districts within the four (4) urban counties are contained within the boundaries of such counties.

Section 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 3-1-103, is amended by deleting the section in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

(a) All census descriptions, census delineations, census district lines and other census designations are those established for or by the United States department of commerce, bureau of the census for taking the 1980 federal decennial census in Tennessee. Any reference to an incorporated city or town contained in this section is a reference to such entities as delineated in such census.

(b) "County commission district" or "commission district" means the political subdivisions of counties from which members of the county legislative body are elected and shall refer to such districts as they existed on the date such districts were adopted by the county legislative bodies as follows:

- (1) Campbell County, November 9, 1981;
- (2) Carroll County, December 1, 1981;
- (3) Chester County, December 17, 1981;
- (4) Greene County, December 8, 1981;
- (5) Grundy County, February 15, 1982;
- (6) Lincoln County, November 20, 1981;
- (7) Macon County, April 19, 1982;
- (8) Marshall County, October 19, 1981;
- (9) Maury County, December 2, 1981;

- (11) Rutherford County, June 16, 1981;
- (12) Sevier County, December 7, 1981;
- (13) Warren County, October 26, 1981;

(14) Williamson County, September 21, 1981; and

(15) Wilson County, November 16, 1981.

(c) All voting wards, voting precincts and voting districts are those in existence or adopted on the following dates:

(1) Anderson County, April 17, 1984;

(2) Blount County, September 8, 1981;

(3) Campbell County, November 9, 1981;

(4) Carter County, March 2, 1982;

(5) Davidson County, June 1, 1982;

(6) Greene County, December 8, 1981;

(7) Grundy County, February 15, 1982;

(8) Hamilton County, February 10, 1982;

(9) Knox County, February 1, 1983;

(10) Marion County, December 11, 1981;

(11) Maury County, December 2, 1981;

(12) Sevier County, January 11, 1982;

(13) Shelby County, April 5, 1983;

(14) Sullivan County, February 18, 1983;

(15) Washington County, December 14, 1981; and

(16) Williamson County, March 8, 1982.

(d) Until the next enumeration of qualified voters and apportionment of representatives, one (1) representative is to be elected by the qualified voters of each state representative district, which is composed as follows:

(e) Representatives elected to the Ninety-third General Assembly shall, until the next general election for representatives, represent their respective districts as constituted prior to the effective date of this act. Nothing in this section shall be construed as depriving any member of the house of representatives of the Ninety-third General Assembly of his office, or as affecting or modifying the constitutional requirements of the provisions of Article II, Section 3, of the Constitution of Tennessee. At the November, 1984 general election, and thereafter until changed by law, representatives shall be elected to represent the districts as constituted and provided by this section. Provided, however, that if the seat of a member of the house of representatives becomes vacant prior to the general election in which a representative is to be elected to represent the district as constituted and provided by this section, in accordance with Article II, Section 15 of the Constitution of Tennessee, a successor shall be elected by the county legislative body to represent the district as constituted and provided prior to the effective date of this act.

(f) It is the legislative intent that all house of representatives districts shall be contiguous and, toward that end, if any enumeration or voting district or other geographical entity designated as a portion of a district is found to be noncontiguous with the larger portion of such district, it shall be constituted a portion of the districts smallest in population to which it is contiguous.

(g) County election commissions shall, with the assistance of the office of local government, redraw or establish any precinct lines to insure that there will be no split precincts in legislative districts. Provided, however, in any county with a metropolitan form of government the provisions of this subsection shall not apply.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2-3-102, to the contrary, the county election commission shall make such changes in the boundaries of precincts as may be necessitated by this section prior to any primary or general election of members of the house of representatives held after the effective date of this act.

(h) Any subsequent reapportionment of county legislative bodies shall not affect these legislative districts.

Section 3. If the plan of apportionment in accordance with Section 2 of this act is declared to be unconstitutional and void by a federal court in a final determination of any action contesting its validity, the following shall constitute the plan of apportionment for the house of representatives:

(a) All census descriptions, census delineations, census district lines and other census designations are those established for or by the United States department of commerce, bureau of the census for taking the 1980 federal decennial census in Tennessee. Any reference to an incorporated city or town contained in this section is a reference to such entities as delineated in such census.

(b) "Commission district" means the political subdivision of counties from which members of the county legislative body are elected and shall refer to such districts as they existed on July 1, 1981, except as follows:

- (1) Cannon County, October 31, 1981;
- (2) Grainger County, October 31, 1981;

(e) Representatives elected to the Ninety-third General Assembly shall, until the next general election for representatives, represent their respective districts as constituted prior to the effective date of this act. Nothing in this section shall be construed as depriving any member of the house of representatives of the Ninety-third General Assembly of his office, or as affecting or modifying the constitutional requirements of the provisions of Article II, Section 3, of the Constitution of Tennessee. At the November, 1984 general election, and thereafter until changed by law, representatives shall be elected to represent the districts as constituted and provided by this section. Provided, however, that if the seat of a member of the house of representatives becomes vacant prior to the general election in which a representative is to be elected to represent the district as constituted and provided by this section, in accordance with Article II, Section 15 of the Constitution of Tennessee, a successor shall be elected by the county legislative body to represent the district as constituted and provided prior to the effective date of this act.

(f) County election commissions shall, with the assistance of the office of local government, redraw or establish any precinct lines to insure that there will be no split precincts in legislative districts. Provided, however, in any county with a metropolitan form of government the provisions of this subsection shall not apply. The provisions of the preceding sentence shall apply only to the fifty-ninth legislative district for the house of representatives.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2-3-102, to the contrary, the county election commission shall make such changes in the boundaries of precincts as may be necessitated by this section prior to any primary or general election of members of the house of representatives held after the effective date of this act.

(g) Any subsequent reapportionment of county legislative bodies shall not affect these legislative districts.

Section 4. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to that end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.

Section 5. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
